(c) Sirmur district:

Shri Guman Singh, M.L.A.

2. The travelling allowance of non-official members will be regulated as per Annexure 'A'.

ANNEXURE 'A'

The non-official members of the Co-ordination Committee at the State Level for the Indo-German Agricultural Project, Mandi and Kangra would be entitled to travelling allowance as under:—

1. TRAVELLING ALLOWANCE

(a) Journey by rail.—They will be treated at par with Government servants of the first grade and will be entitled to a single fare of the class of accommodation actually used, but not exceeding the fare to which the Government servants of the first grade are normally entitled i.e., accommodation of the highest class, by whatever name it may be called, provided on the railway by which the journey is performed except air conditioned accommodation plus as allowance for incidental expenses at the rate of 30 Paise per every ten kilometer or part thereof, if the journey exceeds 5 kilometers, restricted to one daily allowance at the ordinary rate or at the rate of Rs. 3.00, whichever is more, for every twenty-four hours of the railway journey or part thereof.

(b) Journey by road.—In respect of journeys by road between places not connected by rail, a member will be entitled to road mileage admissible to an officer of the first grade under the rules and at their rates as admissible to the employees of the Himachal Pradesh Government.

In a case where journey between two places connected by rail is performed by road, rail being the ordinary mode of travelling, the road mileage will be regulated as under:—

When a journey is performed by taking a single seat in a public conveyance he will be entitled to—

(i) Actual fare paid for seat in the public conveyance plus incidentals admissible as for a journey by rail, or

(ii) the lower rates of road mileage prescribed in the rules, but limited to rail mileage, whichever is less.

(iii) When journey is performed otherwise, the higher rate of road mileage but limited to rail mileage will apply.

2. DAILY ALLOWANCE

(i) These non-official members, who are also members of Himachal Pradesh Vidhan Sabha will be entitled to a daily allowance for each day of meeting except when the Vidhan Sabha or a Vidhan Sabha Committee on which the members are serving is in session at the highest rate admissible to a Government servant of the first grade for locality.

(ii) In addition to the daily allowance for the day(s) of the meetings a member shall also be entitled to full daily allowance for the day preceding and/or the day following the meeting if—

(a) he arrives in the forenoon of the day preceding the day of the meeting or on an earlier day;

(b) he and/or departs at 12 noon or in the afternoon of the day following the day of the meeting or on a latter day. But he will be entitled to only half daily allowance for the day preceding and/or for the day following the meeting if—

(a) he arrives at 12 noon or in the afternoon of the day preceding the day of the meeting and/or;

(b) he departs in the forenoon of the day following the day of the meeting.

(iii) Daily allowance will be subject to the usual conditions laid down in Supplementary Rules 73, as amended from time to time.

3. CONVEYANCE ALLOWANCE

A non-official member, resident at a place where the meeting of the Committee is held will not be entitled to travelling and daily allowances on the scales indicated above, but will be allowed only the actual cost of conveyance hire, subject to a maximum of Rs. 20.00 per day. Before the claim is actually paid the controlling officer should verify the claim and satisfy himself, after obtaining such details as may be considered necessary, that the actual expenditure was not less than the amount claimed. In cases he is not satisfied with the details he may at his discretion limit the conveyance allowance to road mileage.

If such a member uses his own car, he will be granted mileage allowance at the rates admissible to officials of the first grade, subject to a maximum of Rs. 10.00 per day.

4. The travelling and daily allowances, will be admissible to a member on production of a certificate by him to the effect that he has not drawn any travelling or daily allowance for the same journey and halts from any other Government source.

5. The non-official members will be eligible for travelling allowance for the journeys actually performed in connection with the meetings of the Committee from and to the place of their permanent residence to be named in advance. If any member performs a journey from a place other than the place of his permanent residence to attend a meeting of the Committee or returns to a place other than the place of his permanent residence after the termination of the meeting, travelling allowance shall be worked out on the basis of the distance actually travelled or the distance between the place of permanent residence and the venue of the meeting whichever is less.

6. These non-official members, being members of Himachal Pradesh Vidhan Sabha, will not be entitled to daily allowance in connection with their assignment, when the Vidhan Sabha or the Vidhan Sabha Committee on which the members are serving is in session, as they will be drawing their daily allowance under the Salaries and Allowances of Members of the Legislative Assembly (Himachal Pradesh) Act, 1963, from the Vidhan Sabha, however, if they certify that they were prevented from attending the session of the house or the Vidhan Sabha Committee and did not draw any daily allowance from the Vidhan Sabha, they would be entitled to daily allowance at the rate as prescribed.

7. The provisions of rule 224 of the Central Government Compilation of Treasury Rules will apply mutatis mutandis in the case of overpayments made on account of travelling allowance to non-official members.

8. These members will also not draw travelling allowance and daily allowance including conveyance allowance which will disqualify them from the Vidhan Sabha.

9. The Director of Agriculture will be controlling officer in regard to the countersigning of the travelling allowance bill of the non-official members and the travelling allowance bills will be prepared by the Directorate of Agriculture.

10. The expenditure will be debitable to head "31—Agriculture F-Agricultural Experiments and Research F. 32-Intensive Agricultural District Programme, F. 31 (1)-State Level for I.A.D.P."

NOTIFICATION/ORDER

Simla-4, the 13th July, 1968

No. 17-24/63-CS-1.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 3 of the Essential Commodities Act, 1955 (10 of 1955) read with the order of the Government of India, in the Ministry of Food, Agriculture, Community Development and Co-operation (Department of Food) No. G.S.R. 906, dated the 9th June, 1966 and the notification of the Government of India, Ministry of Home Affairs No. F. 2/6/66-UTI-(ii), dated the 1st November, 1966, the Administrator, Himachal Pradesh, is pleased to make with immediate effect the following Order namely:—

1. Short title, extent and commencement.—(i) This order may be called the Himachal Pradesh Khandsari and Gur Dealers Licensing Order, 1967.

(ii) It extends to the whole of Himachal Pradesh.

(iii) It shall come into force at once.

2. Definitions.—In this order, unless the context otherwise requires:—

(a) 'Dealer' means a person or institution engaged in the business of purchase, sale or storage for sale of khandsari or gur or both in quantities exceeding

10 quintals at any one time, but does not include an industrial undertaking which is engaged in the manufacture or production of khandsari or gur and which is registered or licensed under the Industries (Development and Regulation) Act, 1951;

(b) 'Director' means the Director, Civil Supplies, Himachal Pradesh or any other officer appointed by the State Government to administer this order;

(c) 'Form' means a form set forth in the schedule to this order;

(d) 'Licensing authority' means an officer appointed by the State Government to exercise the powers and perform the duties of the licensing authority under this order;

(e) 'State Government' means the Lieutenant Governor, Himachal Pradesh;

(f) 'Khandsari' means sugar in the manufacture of which neither a vacuum pan nor a vacuum evaporator is employed;

(g) 'Gur' means the article commonly known as gur, gul, jaggery, shakkar and rab and includes uncrystallised sugar in any other form comprising of original and convertible molasses and other impurities inherent or foreign prepared by boiling cane juice.

3. Licensing of dealers.—(i) After fifteen days of the publication of this order in the Official Gazette, no person or institution shall carry on business as a dealer except under and in accordance with the terms and conditions of a licence issued in this behalf by the licensing authority.

(ii) A separate licence shall be necessary for each place of business:

Provided that a separate licence shall not be required by a licensee when purchases or sales are effected through another licensee holding a licence under this order for the place where the transaction take place.

(iii) For the purpose of this clause any person or institution who stores khandsari or gur or both in any quantity exceeding 10 quintals at any one time shall, unless the contrary is proved, be deemed to store khandsari or gur or both as the case may be for the purpose of sale.

4. Issue of Licence.—(i) Every application for a licence or renewal thereof shall be made to the licensing authority in Form 'A'.

(ii) Every licence issued or renewed under this order shall be in Form 'B' and shall be subject to the conditions specified therein.

5. Period of licence and fees chargeable.—(i) Every licence issued under this order shall be valid from the date of issue for the period ending the 31st December, following and may thereafter be renewed for a further period of one year at a time.

(ii) The fees specified below shall be chargeable in respect of each licence namely:—

For issue of a licence	..	Rs. 5
For renewal of a licence	..	Rs. 2
For issue of a duplicate licence	..	Rs. 10;

Provided that the licence fee shall be charged for the period ending 31st December, 1967 from the dealers who are licensed under the Himachal Pradesh Sugar Dealers Order, 1967:

Provided further that no fee shall be charged for issue of a duplicate licence, if the licensing authority is satisfied that the original licence has become defaced, mutilated, illegible or otherwise rendered useless for no fault of the licensee.

6. Power to refuse licence.—The licensing authority may, after giving the dealer concerned an opportunity of stating his cases in writing and for reasons to be recorded in writing refuse to grant or renew a licence.

7. Contravention of conditions of the licence.—No holder of a licence issued under this order or his agent or servant or any other person acting on his behalf shall contravene any of the terms or conditions of the licence and if any such holder or his agent or servant or any other person acting on his behalf contravenes any of the said terms or conditions, then, without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against him, his licence may be cancelled or suspended by order, in writing of the licensing authority:

Provided that no order shall be made under this clause unless the licensee has been given reasonable opportunity of stating his case in writing against the proposed cancellation or suspension.

8. Appeal.—(i) Any person aggrieved by any order of the licensing authority refusing to issue or renew a licence or cancelling or suspending a licence under the provision of this order may appeal to the Director within 30 days of the date of the receipt by him of such order.

(ii) No order shall be passed in appeal unless the aggrieved person has been given a reasonable opportunity of stating his case in writing or in person.

(iii) Pending the disposal of the appeal, the State Government may direct that the order refusing to renew a licence or the order cancelling or suspending a licence shall not take effect until the appeal is disposed of.

9. Powers of entry, search, seizure etc.—(i) The licensing authority or any other officer authorised by the State Government in this behalf may with such assistance, if any, as he thinks fit:—

- require the owner, occupier of any other person in charge of any place, premises, vehicle or vessel in which he has reason to believe that any contravention of the provisions of this order or of the conditions of any licence issued thereunder has been, is being or is about to be committed, to produce any books, accounts or other documents showing transactions relating to such contraventions;
- enter, inspect or break open and search any place or premises, vehicle or vessel in which he has reason to believe that any contravention of the provisions of this order or of the conditions of any licence issued thereunder, has been, is being, or is about to be committed;
- take or cause to be taken extracts from or copies of any documents showing transactions relating to such contraventions which are produced before him;
- search, seize and remove stocks of khandsari/gur and the animals, vehicles, or other conveyance used in carrying the said khandsari and gur in contravention of the provisions of this order, or of the conditions of the licence issued thereunder and thereafter take or authorise the taking of all measures necessary for securing the production of stocks of khandsari and gur and the animals, vehicles, vessels or other conveyances so seized, in a court and for their safe custody pending such production.

(ii) The provisions of sections 102 and 103 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, relating to search and seizure shall so far as may be apply to searches and seizures under this clause:

Provided that in exercising the powers of entry and search under this clause, due regard shall be paid by the licensing authority or the authorised officer, as the case may be, to the social and religious customs of the occupants of premises so entered and searched.

10. Saving.—Nothing in this order shall apply to:—

- the sale or storage for sale or purchase of khandsari and gur on Government account; and
- the sale by banks of stocks of khandsari and gur hypothecated to them; provided that the khandsari and gur is sold in accordance with the terms and conditions applicable to the hypothecators.

11. Repeal.—The Himachal Pradesh Khandsari and Gur Dealers Licensing Order, 1963 as in force in the areas comprised in Himachal Pradesh immediately before 1st November, 1966 and the Punjab Khandsari and Gur Dealers Licensing Order, 1963 as in force in the areas transferred to Himachal Pradesh under the Punjab Re-organisation Act, 1966 are hereby repealed:

Provided that such repeal shall not effect:—

- the previous operation of any such order; or
- any penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed against any such order; or

(c) and investigation, legal proceeding or remedy in respect of any such penalty, forfeiture or punishment; and any such investigation, legal proceeding or remedy may be instituted, continued or enforced and any such penalty, forfeiture or punishment may be imposed as if this order had not been passed.

(2) Subject to the provisions of sub-clause (1), anything done or any action taken including and appointment or delegation made, notification, order, instructions or directions issued, or licence granted under any of the orders hereby repealed shall—

(a) be deemed to have been done or taken under this order; and

(b) continue in force unless and until directed otherwise or superseded by anything done or any action taken under this order by the State Government or other competent authority.

A Stock Assistant/Veterinary Compounder, for promotion to the post of selection grade Stock Assistant/Veterinary Compounder should have attained at least 8 years experience in the line. Promotion to the selection grade post will, however, be made on the basis of seniority subject to rejection of unfit.

11. Award of selection grade to the Veterinary Assistant Surgeons.—10 per cent of the permanent posts of Veterinary Assistant Surgeons will carry with them a selection grade of Rs. 400-20-500/20-600 with effect from the 7th April, 1964, subject to the following conditions:—

- (i) the selection grades will be given to only permanent Veterinary Assistant Surgeons;
- (ii) veterinary Assistant Surgeons having at least 10 years of service as such will be eligible to get the selection grades, on the basis of seniority subject to the rejection of unfit.

12. Training of directly appointed recruits.—A candidate directly appointed as Veterinary Compounder and/or Stock Assistant without passing the examination from the Training Centre shall be attached to a qualified Veterinary Assistant Surgeon or Incharge of the Farm for preliminary training for a period of six months before being put as a fullfledged Veterinary Compounder and/or Stock Assistant.

13. Qualifications and methods of selection of candidates for training as Veterinary Assistant Surgeon, Stock Assistant, Veterinary Compounders etc. etc.—The qualifications and method of selection of candidates for training as Stock Assistant/Veterinary Compounders, B. V. Sc. course, I. D. D., B. Sc. (Dairy) course will be as laid down in Annexure 'B'.

PART IV—CONDITIONS OF SERVICE

14. Probation of members of service.—(i) Members of the service, both promotees and direct recruits, who are appointed against permanent vacancies, shall on appointment to any post in the service, remain on probation for a period of two years.

Explanation.—Approved officiating service shall be taken as a period spent on probation, but no member who is officiating in any appointment shall, on the completion of the period prescribed, be confirmed until he is appointed against a permanent vacancy.

(ii) If the work or conduct of any member during his period of probation is, in the opinion of the appointing authority, not satisfactory, the appointing authority may dispense with his services or revert him to his former post if he has been appointed to that post, otherwise than by direct recruitment.

(iii) On the completion of the period of probation of any member, the appointing authority prescribed in rule 4 may confirm such member in his appointment or if his work or conduct, has in the opinion of the appointing authority, not been satisfactory, may dispense with his services, or revert him to his former post, if he has been appointed otherwise than by direct recruitment, or may extend the period of probation and thereafter pass such orders on the expiry of the probation as it could have passed on the expiry of the first period of probation:

Provided that the period of probation should be of 2 years and no employee should be kept on probation for more than double the normal period i.e., 4 years.

15. Discipline.—In respect of discipline, punishment and appeal the members of the service shall be governed by the provisions of Central Civil Services (Classification, Control and Appeal) Rules, 1965, as amended from time to time.

16. Seniority of members of service.—(1) Subject to the provisions of paragraph 2 below persons appointed in a substantive or officiating capacity to a grade prior to the issue of these rules shall retain the relative seniority already assigned to them or such seniority as may hereafter be assigned to them under the existing orders applicable to their cases and shall enblock be senior to all other in that grade.

Explanation.—For the purpose of these rules:—

- (a) persons who are confirmed retrospectively with effect from a date earlier than the issue of these rules; and

- (b) persons appointed on probation to a permanent post substantively vacant in a grade prior to the issue of the rules shall be considered to be permanent officers of the grade.

(2) Subject to these provisions of paragraph (3) below, permanent officials of each grade shall be ranked senior to persons who are officiating in that grade.

(3) Direct recruits.—Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-rule 2 above, the relative seniority of all direct recruits shall be determined by the order of merit in which they are selected for such appointment on the recommendation of the Departmental Promotion Committee, persons appointed as a result of the earlier selection being senior to those appointed as a result of subsequent selection:

(i) Provided that where persons recruited initially on a temporary basis are confirmed subsequently in an order different from the order of merit indicated at the time of their appointment, seniority shall follow the order of confirmation and not the original order of merit:

(ii) Provided further that a person who does not join within the specified period, if any, shall lose his/her seniority according to the selection list and shall rank in the seniority list next to the person who joined earlier:

(iii) Provided further that he shall not lose his seniority if the fact of his joining later was caused by circumstances beyond his control and for the reason recorded in writing the appointing authority is satisfied that this was so.

(4) Promotees.—The relative seniority of persons promoted to the various grades shall be determined in the order of their selection for such promotion:

Provided that where persons promoted initially on a temporary basis are confirmed subsequently in an order different from the order of merit indicated at the time of their promotion, seniority shall follow the order of confirmation and not the original order of merit.

(ii) Where promotions to a grade are made from more than one grade, the eligible persons shall be arranged in separate lists in the order of their relative seniority in their respective grades. Thereafter, the Departmental Promotion Committee shall select persons for promotion from each list upto the prescribed quota and arrange all the candidates selected from different lists, in a consolidated seniority (subject to rejection of unfit) according to their dates of confirmations or appointments as the case may be.

(5) Relative seniority of direct recruits and promotees.—The relative seniority of direct recruits and of promotees shall be determined according to the rotation of vacancies between direct recruits and promotees which shall be based on the quota of vacancies reserved for direct recruitment and promotion respectively in these rules.

Roster.—A roster shall be maintained based on the reservations for direct recruitment and promotion in the recruitment rules. The appointments shall be made in accordance with this roster and seniority determined accordingly.

Illustration.—Where 75 per cent of the vacancies are reserved for promotion and 25 per cent for direct recruitment, each direct recruit shall be ranked in seniority below 3 promotees. Where the quotas are 50 per cent every direct recruit shall be ranked below a promotee.

If for any reason, a direct recruit or a promotee ceases to hold the appointment in the grade, the seniority list shall not be re-arranged merely for the purpose of ensuring the promotion referred to above.

(6) Transfers.—The relative seniority of persons appointed by transfer to the Department from the Central Government or other departments of State Government shall be determined in accordance with the order of their selection for such transfer.

(ii) Where such transfers are effected against specific quotas prescribed in the recruitment rules, the relative seniority of such transfers vis-a-vis direct recruits and promotees shall be determined according to the rotation of vacancies which shall be based on the quotas reserved for transfer, direct recruitment and promotion respectively in the recruitment rules.

(iii) Where a person is appointed by transfer in accordance with a provision in the recruitment rules providing for such transfer, such transfer shall be grouped with direct recruits or promotees, as the case may be, for the purpose of para 5 above. He shall be ranked below all direct recruits or promotees, as the case may be, selected on the same occasion.

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

PROCEDURE FOR DIRECT RECRUITMENT (SUB-RULE 3—DIRECT RECRUITS)

(a) The vacancy/vacancies shall be notified to the Employment Exchanges and also circulated among the different departments of Himachal Pradesh Government if need be.

(b) The vacancy/vacancies shall be advertised subject to the non-availability certificate being obtained from the Employment Exchanges.

(c) The selection will be made on the basis of viva-voce test or a written test or both, as the case may be, prescribed in the circular/advertisement.

PROMOTEE [SUB-RULE 4(1)]

Where promotions are made on the basis of selection by a Departmental Promotion Committee, the seniority of such promotees shall be in the order in which they are recommended for such promotion by the Committee. Where promotions are made on the basis of seniority subject to the rejection of the unfit, the seniority of person considered fit for promotion at the same time shall be the same as the relative seniority in the lower grade from which they are promoted. Where, however, a person is considered as unfit for promotion and is superseded by a junior, such person shall not, if he is subsequently found suitable and promoted, take seniority in the higher grade over the junior person who had superseded him.

17. Leave and pension.—In respect of leave, pension and other (cognate) matter not specifically mentioned in these rules, the members of the service shall be governed by the Revised Leave Rules, 1933, as given in Appendix 7 of Volume II of the Posts and Telegraphs Compilation of the Fundamental and Supplementary Rules and the Pension Rules promulgated by the Government of India in Ministry of Finance's Office Memo No. F.3(1)Est-Spl/47, dated the 17th April, 1950 as amended from time to time unless one has already exercised option otherwise.

18. Training and examination, etc.—The members of service shall have to qualify at examinations or to undergo such courses of training as may be prescribed by the Government from time to time for any class of posts, or for a particular post.

19. Other conditions of service.—In respect of conditions of service other than those covered by these rules, members of the service shall be governed by the conditions of service of Union Territories Employees Rules, 1959, issued by the Government of India, Ministry of Home Affairs vide their notification No. F. 27/59-Him(ii), dated the 13th July, 1959.

20. Repeals and Savings.—These rules shall supersede all previous rules framed and orders issued by the Himachal Pradesh Government/Administration/Territorial Council on the subject from time to time:

Provided that such repeal shall not effect the previous operation of the rules and orders thereby repealed or anything done or any action taken thereunder.

ANNEXURE 'C'

Copy of office memorandum No. 4/756-RPS, dated the 30th November, 1956, from the Under Secretary to the Government of India, Ministry of Home Affairs, to all Ministries, etc.

Subject.—Minimum age limit for recruitment to clerical posts not made through the Union Public Service Commission.

Reference this Ministry's Office Memo. No. 4/756-RPS, dated the 20th March, 1956.

Replies received from Ministries and other offices to this Ministry's office memorandum referred to above show a consensus of opinion in favour of the proposals made in that memorandum. It has accordingly been decided that for recruitment to clerical posts under the Central Government made without reference to the Union Public Service Commission, the minimum age limit should be 18 years. Heads of Departments are authorised to make relaxation, in exceptional cases of this limit by not more than one year.

3. In so far as the person serving in the Indian Audit and Accounts Department are concerned, these orders are issued in consultation with the Comptroller and Auditor General.

ANNEXURE 'D'

To cope with the departments' demands in the field of technical staff and to provide technical assistance for implementation of various schemes the department shall impart training (subject to rules/instructions issued by the Government from time to time for training) to staff and private individuals who after completion of their respective training shall be recruited to suitable posts. Briefly, the training programme shall constitute of the following parts:—

1. Specialised (Departmental) training;
2. In-service training for untrained Stock Assistants/Veterinary Compounders etc., etc; and
3. Pre-recruitment training

1. Specialised (Departmental) training.—With a view to implementing the various schemes, introduced in the Department, and to run the departmental farms and other such institutions, it is essential to increase the efficiency and knowledge of the members, in specific subjects. Members will, therefore, be deputed for training in such subjects for the specified period, to the institutions in or outside the country, where such training is imparted, according to the demands of the Department. Candidates for such training will be selected from amongst the members, on the basis of seniority subject to the rejection of unfit.

2. In-service training for Stock Assistants/Veterinary Compounders, etc.—The Stock Assistants/Veterinary Compounders etc. who are appointed under rule 8(16) and 8(18) of these rules, and any other member borne on their cadre, shall be required to undergo training at the training centre for one year. Such members shall be deputed for training in small batches every year, along-with other candidates, selected for such training directly till the demands of the Department so require.

3. Pre-recruitment training.—Notwithstanding the provision made under rule 8(16) and 8(18), of these rules, the Department shall impart training to private individuals according to the demands of the Department in the following courses, before they are appointed to the respective posts. They will be paid suitable stipends during the training at the rates, admissible under the relevant rules, of course, on the terms and conditions prescribed therein:—

- (a) B.V.Sc. & A.H.,
- (b) B.Sc. (Dairying),
- (c) I.D.D., and
- (d) Stock Assistants/Veterinary Compounders, etc.

Qualifications and eligibility.—Unless the circumstances otherwise require (which shall be justified in writing) the candidates having the following qualifications shall be eligible for selection to these training courses:—

- (a) B.V.Sc. and A. H.—(4 and 5 years course).—F.Sc./Pre-Medical, Pre-Engineering, Pre-University with Science subjects/Higher Secondary with Science subjects from a recognised University/Board.
- (b) B.Sc. (Dairying)—(4 years).—Higher Secondary/Pre-University in Science with English, Mathematics, Physics and Chemistry of a recognised University/Board.
- (c) I. D. D.—(2 years).—Higher Secondary/Pre-University in Science with English, Mathematics, Physics and Chemistry of a recognised University/Board.

(d) Stock Assistants/Veterinary Compounders, etc.—(1 years' course).—Matric with Science subjects, other than in-service candidates or promotees.

Provided that:

- (1) Each and every candidate selected for training shall be required to execute a Bond (see Annexure 'E') undertaking thereby to make his services available to the Department after the completion of his training for a specific period to be determined by the Department or in default pay the entire cost with interest, spent on his training.
2. Selection to the Stock Assistants/Veterinary Compounders (etc.) training course shall be made according to the requirement of the department.
